

employment training

business services youth disability

Follow Workplace Hygiene Procedures

Qualification Overview

Follow Workplace Hygiene Procedures is for anyone working or wanting to work in a hospitality or retail environment where food is handled and served. It applies to both paid employment and voluntary positions. This unit is a prerequisite for the Food Safety for Supervisors unit.

Entry Requirements

There are no prerequisites for this course.

Course Outline

Follow Workplace Hygiene Procedures will cover the basic aspects of safe food practices in relation to food safety legislation.

Participants learn how to:

- Follow workplace hygiene procedures in accordance with enterprise standards and legal requirements
- Identify and prevent hygiene risks

Course Content

Based on:

- SITXOHS002A Follow workplace hygiene procedures
- OR
- CHCAC16A Provide food services (for those working in Community Services)

Mode and Length of Study

Follow Workplace Hygiene Procedures is offered as a face to face course from 9.30am to 3.30pm.

Fee Structure

The cost of completing Follow Workplace Hygiene Procedures is $120.00

Enquiries

For information regarding enrolment, fees or further course selection please contact our Training Department on 03 5329 1500 or email training@bestcd.org.au

This course is accredited within the food industry.

